6th Annual ICTN Camp and Retreat

January 28, 29 and 30, 2011

Comfort Suites @ Sabino Canyon
Tucson, Arizona
9 a.m. Friday 1/28 to noon Sunday 1/30

The 2011 camp is open to adult endurance athletes of all age groups and experience levels. Our camp teaching team includes top professional triathletes, pastors, coaches, and trainers. The camp is a great chance to make a mid-winter retreat, train your body, and feed your soul. The camp will be headquartered in scenic Tucson, Arizona.

Registration is now open on Active.com. Your $185 registration (plus Active fees) covers participation in the camp, SWAG-goody bag, all workouts, all group teaching sessions, skills-based learning sessions, and selected group meals. (Check for details online at Active.com and www.ictrinet.com).

Room reservations are not included in the registration; however, discounted room rates are available while supplies last.

Please go to <http://www.tucsconcs.com/> for hotel information and reservations.

Past speakers include: Heather Gollnick, Jamie Whitmore, Chris Lieto, Kirk Nelson & Brad Seng.

For more information go to www.ictrinet.com.

Email us at contactictn@ictrinet.com to be added to our camp mailing list.

The 6th Annual ICTN Camp and Retreat will include some of the best riding that Tucson — No. 1 on Triathlete Magazine's List of the "20 Best Places to Live" — has to offer, including Mt. Lemmon (pictured at left). Come swim, ride, run and learn with us!
